DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The scope the claim 1 is confusing. In the preamble of the claim it is not clear whether "A repair" is being claimed or a device for repairing is being claimed. For examination purpose, the claim will be considered claiming "a device for repairing". Further, later in the claim it is not clear whether applicant attempts to claim a device for repairing or to claim a device-track-door combination. Lines 4-6, "a flat plastic...attached to the roller rail" suggests that a combination is being claimed. Again, for examination purpose the all will be treated as a combination claim.

Lines 7-9, "a 90 degree angle width-wise" is not understood. The embodiment shows an angle lengthwise. "middle of one the sides..." does not make sense.

Lines 14-15, "aligned over...with each other" is not understood.

3. Claim 1 may be given favorable consideration if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
